Profile

Experienced software developer with a strong focus on TypeScript, known for being a collaborative team player with excellent problem-solving skills. I am a fast learner who thrives in challenging environments and enjoys continuously expanding my skill set. I am currently seeking an opportunity that will push my limits, allowing me to further enhance my expertise while contributing to innovative projects.

Employment History

Full Stack Developer, Basis Technologies

July 2021 - Present

- Full stack development using agile methodologies for the web version of "Active Control" mainly focusing on TypeScript/Node.js middleware and SAP UI5 frontend
- Actively participated in code peer reviews, validating functionality and promoting best practices
- Played a role in the implementation and maintenance of the project's CI/CD process, ensuring smooth integration and efficient deployment
- Provided valuable technical guidance to junior developers, fostering a collaborative and knowledge-sharing environment
- Participated in sprint planning meetings, discussing design and implementation of user stories

Education

BSc Computer Science, University of Essex

October 2017 – June 2021 Result: 2:1

Dissertation topic: Privacy preserving mechanisms in the release of healthcare data

Relevant modules: Advanced programming | Artificial intelligence | Web application development | Network security | Evolutionary computation and genetic programming

Hobbies

In my free time, I maintain an active lifestyle through my involvement in sports such as gym workouts, boxing, and football. Alongside my physical activities, I enjoy programming and music, which sparked the idea for my DJ project. I am developing a web app that enables you to connect your controller and DJ live for an audience (please refer to my website for more information). Lastly, I have a passion for cooking and enjoy experimenting with new recipes that I discover online.
